VILLA'S MAIN ARMY IS NOW APPROACHING SANTA ROSALIA

Men Are Well Armed After Capturing Troop Train and Possess a Number of Machine Guns--Are Evidently On Their Way to Chihuahua City

[By United Press]
EL PASO, Oct. 28.—Villa's main army is approaching Santa Rosalia, eighty miles southwest of Chihuahua City, after cutting the railway at Ortiz. American agents who are investigating say that Villa has nearly 4,000 men in several bands. Three-fourths are well armed since the capture of Ozuna's supply train at Palomas. He has several machine guns

Parade In Reno Tonight Promises to Be Long Remembered Affair

RENO, Oct. 28.—According to present plans a streak of red fire will mark the course of the Democratic parade in Reno tonight. It promises to be one of the most spontaneous and enthusiastic political outbursts ever seen in this city to do honor to the nation's chief executive. Wilson Day this year should long be remembered.

"Everybody Walks" with the cry of "We Want Wilson." Governor Boyle will lead the procession flanked by Nevada's senators, the Honorable Francis G. Newlands and the Honorable Key Pittman. Edwin E. Caine for congress, Judge J. A. Sanders for the Supreme court, William Kennett for clerk of the Supreme court will be followed by the entire list of county candidates, Captain A. A. Burke, candidate for sheriff of Washoe county,

Federated Clubs Honor Carson Lady

Word was received from Goldfield last evening that Mrs. Pearl B. Ellis of this city had been elected president of the Nevada Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. B. W. Coleman, president of the Leisure Hour club in behalf of the club, wired congratulations to Mrs. Ellis and the Carson delegation. Much surprise was manifested when it became known that Mrs. Charles Sprague of Goldfield had entered the contest against Mrs. Ellis as it is an unwritten law that no member of the hostess club shall aspire to the presidency.

The Federation had a very successful and interesting session. Governor Boyle addressed the assemblage of women regarding what they could accomplish along legislative lines for the good of the commonwealth. Mrs. E. D. Knight, formerly a Virginia City girl, now president of the California Federation, spoke of the gradual development of women in club work and the broadening and development of their characters through club association. Miss Vanderlieth presented the Student Loan work of the club. Many gentlemen were present and later came forward and expressed their interest in this phase of Federation work and promised their aid.

The Carson City delegates are expected home on this evening's express.

President A. W. Hendrick of the state university was a visitor in Carson yesterday afternoon.

HENDERSON REPLIES TO RENO JOURNAL

Following is the reply of Charles B. Henderson to the letter addressed to him some weeks ago by the Nevada State Journal:

Sir: Your circular letter addressed to the several nominees for regent of the University of Nevada, dated September 18, 1916, was received some weeks ago.

Replying to such letter I note that the other candidates for regent have found it necessary to present the general reasons governing and qualifying their replies to your categorical questions, and I shall avail myself of the same privilege.

On my desk is an editorial clipping from your paper, the Nevada State Journal of June 1, 1916, a portion of which permit me to quote:

"Truth and idealism wither in an atmosphere of Deceit, of Double-Dealing and of Suspicion."

What of the boys and girls who live in this atmosphere? Instances are known of the evil effects of such surroundings. Boys have come out of the university imbued with the idea that it is eminently right and proper to employ any means to advance themselves so long as they remain within the strict letter of the law, and no one who is aware of the impressionable nature of the brains of the young is ignorant of the fact that all absorb something harmful to them where truth, high ideals, honesty and independence are not revered above all things else.

You will admit, I take it, that the foregoing is a fair sample of the adverse advertising you have been giving the University of Nevada for the past two years. You perhaps will not deny that the present Board of Regents have invited and at no time refused you the opportunity to formally present any complaints or charges you might care to bring against the conduct of the university, the president, or any member of the faculty, with the evidence in support thereof, and you have signally failed to do so.

Perhaps, further, you may not deny that aside from yourself, those most active in your propaganda against the present administration of the university are at least biased to the extent of having suffered disconnection from the payroll during the process of re-organization of the university in 1914 and 1915, for the good of the university and the taxpayers, in most instances, as I believe.

I heartily agree with your editorial declaration that "Truth and Idealism wither in an atmosphere of Deceit, of Double-Dealing and of Suspicion," but I must submit that you have transposed the parties in this controversy.

In support of this declaration you will permit me to reproduce an extract from another of your editorials (Journal of October 15th) as follows: "The Journal has sufficient data on hand, unpublished, in connection with the land bill and political activities at the university which, if used, would fill several issues of the local publication already twice referred to. For example, relative to politics at the university, this statement was made and this question asked by one, who knew Mr. Hendrick in another field of labor:

"I KNEW WHEN HE WENT TO NEVADA THAT HE WAS GOING INTO THE 'ROTTEN BOROUGH' AND THAT HIS JOB WOULD BE SEMI-POLITICAL AND BE SUBJECT TO THE POLITICAL INFLUENCES OF ONE OR THE OTHER OF THE Factions, TO WHICH DOES HE BELONG, TO THE HENDERSON OR THE OTHER?"

It was, of course, impossible for you to have reproduced the above garbled quotation without having in your possession a copy of the letter from which it is quoted. Is it not a justifiable surmise that among your "sufficient data at hand, unpublished, in connection with the land bill and the political activities of the university, which, if used, would fill several issues of the local publication," you have the original or a copy of the reply to this letter?

For your information I may say that I have the original letter from which such garbled quotation was made and the carbon copy of the reply to it, of which you undoubtedly have the original.

The alleged quotation is from a letter dated May 6, 1916, and written by one "E. L. Brown, attorney-at-law, Reno, Nevada," who in his letter claims a ten-years' residence in Reno, although his name does not happen to appear in the telephone directory.

It was addressed to, and on May 17th, was answered by Hon. A. E. Clarke of Portland, Ore., a distinguished citizen of that state, and the nominee of the Progressive party, last election, for United States senator.

As the exemplar of "Truth and Idealism" and fearful that it may wither in an atmosphere of Deceit and Double-Dealing and of Suspicion," the lofty ideals of yourself and Mr. Brown seem not to have deterred you from quoting Mr. Brown for Mr. Clark and omitting Mr. Clark's denial that he had ever made any such statements as placed in his mouth by Mr. Brown.

Am I correct in the assumption that the other "evidence" in the possession of yourself and associate propagandists for the reformation of the university, if given opportunity for scrutiny would be found of like validity.

That this may be clear to all concerned I here include as part of my reply, copies of Mr. Brown's letter to Mr. Clark and of Mr. Clark's letter to Mr. Brown, as follows:

E. L. BROWN,
Attorney at Law,
Reno, Nevada.

"Reno, Nevada, May 6th, 1916.

"Mr. E. A. Clark, Attorney at Law, Portland, Oregon.

"Dear Sir: Just as a reminder: I called upon you during the latter part of February of this year making inquiry concerning one A. W. Hendrick.

"Having indulged in the game of politics to a very considerable, in the neighboring state, to yours, Washington, and having as I thought graduated in the science, I came to this state determined to stay out of the game entirely, and so far I have done so, although I have had several opportunities to get into the game in this 'Rotten Borough.'

"Upon my return to my home here, and within a month thereafter, I was asked to address two different public meetings on the 'Pittman Bill,' Pittman being our senator, and his bill being a land grant bill of 7,000,000 acres of land to the state for school and university purposes.

"At the same time I found the president of the university at Washington, D. C., lobbying for the 'Pittman Bill.'

"There was a strain of familiarity about that as I had just been going through a very similar experience of this man in Washington, in his efforts to get Fort Walla Walla for Whitman College.

"We are all in favor of the land grant, but as Nevada is practically owned by fourteen cattle men we wondered whether this grant was for the purpose of taking out of all

Pernicious Habit; Should Be Stopped

Complaints are being made that parties are continually and persistently tearing down and destroying the cards of candidates which are tacked up throughout the town and country. It is a practice to which a stop should be put at once.

These cards cost the candidates money and it costs them money to have them tacked up around the town and they are entitled to the protection that any owner of property has. It does not make any difference whose cards they are: Republican, Socialist, Prohibitionist or Democrat, they should not be destroyed or pulled down. The practice is vicious and the offenders, if caught, should be punished.
